BSP Distributes Korban (Sacrificial) Meat to Mark Hari Raya Aidiladha

Brunei Shell Petroleum Company Sdn Bhd (BSP) today conducted its annual 'Feast of Sacrifice' in conjunction with Hari Raya Aidiladha 1435 HM at the Big Top, Oil and Gas Discovery Centre (OGDC) in Seria.

As with previous years, the holy ritual of "sacrificing" the animals was carried out at Mulaut Abattoir Sdn Bhd. Some 34 people from BSP registered to take part in the Korban rites by sacrificing a total of six buffaloes.

The ceremony started with the recital of Al-Fatihah and Doa Selamat followed by the distribution of korban (sacrificial) meat to 191 underprivileged individuals in the Belait District.

The korban meat was distributed by the Guest of Honor at the event, Hj Jaafar Hj Awang Bakar, the West Asset Manager at BSP.

Prior to this event, the 'Lafaz Akad' ceremony, which is mandatory for all contributors of the Qurban meat was conducted at the Panaga Health Centre from 30th September to 1st October 2014.

The ceremony ended with a feast that was enjoyed by some 300 attendees, in commemoration of one of the most important days in the Muslim calendar.

ENDS.
