BRUNEI SHELL PETROLEUM HOLDS KORBAN EVENT

Brunei Shell Petroleum Company Sendirian Berhad (BSP) yesterday marked the Hari Raya Aidil Adha with the sacrifice of 4 buffaloes and distributed its meat to the underprivileged in the Belait area.

The event, organised by BSP's Communications and External Affairs Department (CEA) with the support of the BSP's Religious Committee was held at the Belait Convention Centre. This event is one of the many annual social investment activities carried out by BSP involving staff and the community.

The ceremony started with the recital of Surah Al-Fatihah and a Doa Selamat followed by the distribution of the Korban meat.

Hj Sufri Hj Sulaiman, West Operations Manager and Suriani Garip, Acting Communications and External Affairs Manager represented BSP Leadership as the event's Guests of Honour and gave away the meat to participants and guests. Also present as guests were the Penghulus and Ketua Kampung of Belait District and senior officers from BSP.

A total of 4 buffaloes were sacrificed for the event by 28 members of staff from BSP and their families this year.

More than 200 people were the recipients of the meat, including 250 invited Asnaf fakir miskin (underprivileged) recipients registered under the Brunei Islamic Religious Council (Majlis Ugama Islam Brunei), the general community and BSP staff.

ENDS.
